Handwritten text in Tamil script, likely a manuscript or document. The text is dense and covers most of the page.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written on a single line across the page, with some visible ink bleed-through from the reverse side. The script is dense and appears to be a form of shorthand or a highly stylized cursive. The paper is aged and shows signs of wear, including creases and discoloration.

2

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written in a single column and appears to be a continuous narrative or record. The script is dense and characteristic of early modern European handwriting. There are several dark ink blotches or holes visible in the middle of the page, which may be due to damage or intentional markings. The text is written on a piece of aged, slightly discolored paper.

சிவசுந்தரி / சிவசுந்தரி

[illegible]

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or letter. The text is written on a single sheet of paper with a horizontal fold line visible near the bottom. The script is dense and fills most of the page.

[illegible]

Handwritten text in a script, likely Indic, spanning multiple lines on a single page. The text is written in dark ink on aged, slightly discolored paper. The script is dense and appears to be a form of Sanskrit or a related language. The page shows signs of wear, including some staining and a small dark spot near the center. The text is organized into several horizontal lines, with some lines being more prominent than others. The overall appearance is that of an ancient manuscript or a historical document.
